

14.

15.

16.

17.

18.

19.

SET CREDITS

'Vigo' triple shelving unit, £5,900, by Pinch Design, www.pinchdesign.com.
 Skylight No. 205' Estate emulsion paint, £30 for 2.5 litres, by Farrow and Ball, www.farrow-ball.com.
 Easels, from a selection, from Green & Stone of Chelsea, www.greenandstone.com.
 Serving platter, £55, by Rice, from SCP, www.scp.co.uk.
 Set build: RIDA UK
 Additional writing: Ellie Stathaki, Rosa Bertoli

14. PEOPLES PLEASER

Avant-garde Japanese label The Soloist has teamed up with swish spectacle makers Oliver Peoples on two directional styles that combine salvaged and reproduced vintage parts. Frames from £260, by The Soloist, for Oliver Peoples, www.oliverpeoples.com

15. PAGE TURNER

Adrien Bosc, a junior editor at Allia Editions, has just launched French-language quarterly Feuilleton, which translates iconic stories and essays from abroad on everything from politics to culture and food. Feuilleton, €15, from Merci, www.revuefeuilleton.com

16. TOP TONIC

After years of shaking cocktails in Kentucky and South Carolina, mixologist Brooks Reitz has created the ultimate tonic syrup with a blend of lemongrass, orange zest and soft quinine syrup. Artisan tonic, $32 for two bottles, www.jackrudycocktailco.com

17. BRUSH HOUR

Few make-up brushes beat the craftsmanship and beauty of Nars' Kabuki-inspired designs. A lip and eye brush now join the rest of the collection in a glossy box. 'Nagauta Kabuki' brush set, £160, by Nars, www.narscosmetics.co.uk

18. TUSCAN TASTE

This basil panettone was dreamed up by Tuscan baker Luca Signorini. Its three main ingredients (basil, walnuts and olive oil) give the brioche a unique flavour and feather-light texture. 'Insolitum' panettone, €30 per kg, by Luca Signorini, www.signoriniluca.com

19. HEX FACTOR

Seattle-based studio Iacoli & McAllister's playful work spans furniture to jewellery, but we're especially fond of their elegant take on the humble bottle opener, made from a hexagonal brass bar. 'Hex' bottle opener, $48, by Iacoli & McAllister, iacolimcallister.com